Dear Class of 1990:

Congratulations as you join the long ranks of Mt. St. Joseph Academy graduates.

As our days together come to an end, I am reminded of the many good things that you have done for each other and for M.S.J. I do believe that M.S.J. is a better place because you were here for a time. As you go on through life, I challenge you to make our world a better place by making your piece of our world better. You have so very much to give.

Remember every day that the Lord is your "constant companion," there is no need that He cannot fill, and that He will never let you go. You always have Him with you even when you are most unaware.

You will remain very much in my love and in my prayer.

Blessings,

Stu Sen 4; Class officer 1; NHS 2, 3, 4; Tennis 2, 3, 4; Girls State Gov; Newsp Ed. 4. Desire alone is not enough. But to lack desire means to lack a key ingredient to success. Many a talented individual failed because they lacked desire. Many victories have been snatched by the underdog because they wanted it more. Your living is determined not so much by what life brings to you but by the attitude you bring to life; not so much by what happens to you but by the way your mind looks at what happens. Circumstances and situations do color life, but you have been given the chance to choose what the color will be. — John Homer Miller

From all accounts, the world has been getting worse and worse ever since it was created. Come on. Leave me alone.

This is my locker!

Can't you sit without rolling over?

Future flier.

Don't ever let her drive your car!

Wow!

Hurry up! Take my picture!

Where's the race?

Cheese!

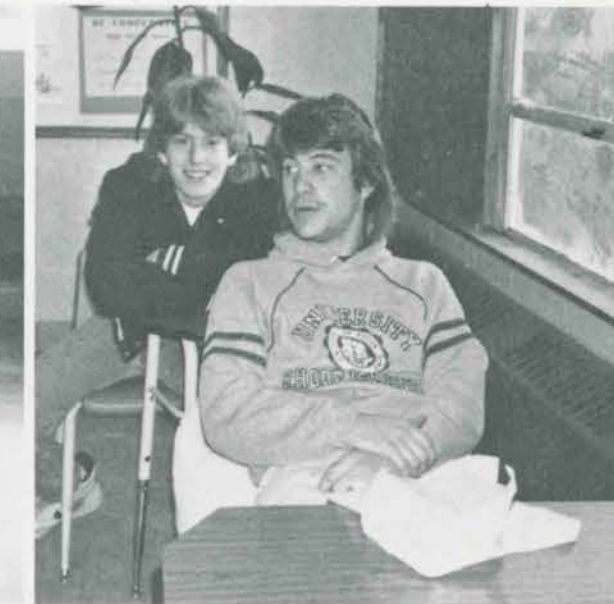

We have to know all that?!

I'm studying. So what?

All together now!

Mike, what was that girl's name?

We are serious!

Hey, how's it going?

Am I supposed to know this?

Should I?

Of course we have a pass.

Sez who?

Like my new hairdo?

What homework?

This is too easy.

Did you hear ...

Are you really going to eat that?

Left-handed isn't so hard.

Study, study, study ...

Oh, yeah?

These are m' boys.

You're on candid camera!

Hey, Chicky-baby.

Move over, Siskel!

Homework again?!

You're in my way.

Happiness is friendship.

You caught me!

I'm dropping this class!

I'm innocent!

Dreaming ...

No peeking!

What?

It's just too early!

Yum! Lunch time!

Weren't doin' nothin'!

It's in here somewhere.

Let me just get my pencil.

Smile?

You don't understand!

What a day!

Monday again ...

Today's forecast?

Do you believe that?

Just go away!

IT COULDN'T BE DONE

Somebody said that it couldn't be done,
But he with a chuckle replied
That "maybe it couldn't," but he would be one
Who wouldn't say till he'd tried.
So he buckled right in with the trace of a grin
On his face. If he worried he hid it.
He started to sing as he tackled the thing
That couldn't be done, and he did it.

Somebody scoffed: "Oh, you'll never do that;
At least no one ever has done it";
But he took off his coat and he took off his hat,
And the first thing we knew he'd begun it.
With a lift of his chin and a bit of a grin,
Without any doubting or quiddit,
He started to sing as he tackled the thing
That couldn't be done, and he did it.

There are thousands to tell you it cannot be done,
There are thousands to prophesy failure;
There are thousands to point out to you one by one,
The dangers that wait to assail you.
But just buckle in with a bit of a grin,
Just take off your coat and go to it;
Just start in to sing as you tackle the thing
That "cannot be done," and you'll do it.
